of or the discussion between the Coordinating Commission and higher education, and was a bill that we presented to you pointing out the importance of a new statewide plan. When the Coordinating Commission discussed that with us, there would obviously be some additional costs in redoing a whole statewide plan. Larry Scherer, who now works for them, would be asked to probably work on doing the plan, and that brings us to the $28,500 A bill that's presented to you this morning. And I would ask for the advancement of the A bill to allow the plan to go forward. Thank you.
